

Type 2 (2nd and 3rd Mixed Conditionals) Exercise

Make second / third mixed conditionals, where the condition is still true now and the result was in the past. Use short forms where possible.

‘If + past simple (condition still true now), would have + past participle (past result)’.

1. If she _____ (like) sports, she _____ (join) the padel club last year.
2. If he _____ (be) more organized generally, he _____ (participate) in that competition last month.
3. If I _____ (know) more about computers, I _____ (fix) my laptop last week.
4. They _____ (help) with the charity event if they _____ (have) more free time.
5. If I _____ (not / be) scared of heights, I _____ (climb) up the tower on our trip.
6. If he _____ (not / be) so nervous all the time, he _____ (interrupt) them at the meeting yesterday.
7. She _____ (attend) the workshop last Saturday if she _____ (need) to improve her skills.
8. If he _____ (like) painting, he _____ (take) the art class last term.
9. If I _____ (be) braver generally, I _____ (speak) at the school assembly last week.
10. If I _____ (not / have) a cold, I _____ (taste) the new dishes at the restaurant yesterday.
11. I _____ (choose) science at college if I _____ (be) good at it.

12. If we _____ (know) how to play chess, we _____ (join) the tournament last weekend.
13. I _____ (order) the salad yesterday if I _____ (like) vegetables.
14. If we _____ (be) faster readers, we _____ (finish) the book before the deadline.
15. If she _____ (live) closer to work, she _____ (walk) on warmer days last year instead of taking the bus.
16. If I _____ (be) following the news, I _____ (hear) about the accident sooner.
17. She _____ (bake) cookies if she _____ (know) the recipe.
18. If I _____ (have) a better phone, I _____ (send) the photos more quickly after the party.
19. If he _____ (trust) my recommendation, he _____ (try) my new favourite cafe last weekend.
20. He _____ (not / buy) the gift if he _____ (not / think) it was nice.

Answers:

1. If she liked sports, she'd have joined the padel club last year.
2. If he was / were organised generally, he'd have participated in that competition last month.
3. If I knew more about computers, I'd have fixed my laptop last week.
4. They'd have helped with the charity event if they had more free time.
5. If I wasn't / weren't scared of heights, I'd have climbed up the tower on our trip.
6. If he wasn't / weren't so nervous all the time, he'd have interrupted them at the meeting yesterday.
7. She'd have attended the workshop last Saturday if she needed to improve her skills.
8. If he liked painting, he'd have taken the art class last term.
9. If I was / were braver generally, I'd have spoken at the school assembly last week.
10. If I didn't have a cold, I'd have tasted the new dishes at the restaurant yesterday.
11. I'd have chosen science at college if I was / were good at it.
12. If we knew how to play chess, we'd have joined the tournament last weekend.
13. I'd have ordered the salad yesterday if I liked vegetables.
14. If we were faster readers, we'd have finished the book before the deadline.
15. If she lived closer to work, she'd have walked on warmer days last year instead of taking the bus.
16. If I followed the news, I'd have heard about the accident sooner.
17. She'd have baked cookies if she knew the recipe.
18. If I had a better phone, I'd have sent the photos more quickly after the party.
19. If he trusted my recommendation, he'd have tried my new favourite cafe last weekend.
20. He wouldn't have bought the gift if he didn't think it was nice.