

Type 2 (2nd and 3rd Mixed Conditionals) with Modals Exercise

Complete the sentence using 'could / might + have + past participle' in the result clause.

1. If I were more patient, I _____ (might/help) her with her homework.
2. If she weren't so shy, she _____ (could/ask) for a promotion last month.
3. We _____ (might/not/get) lost yesterday if we had better directions.
4. If he had a better memory, he _____ (might/remember) my birthday.
5. They _____ (could/join) the marathon last weekend if they were more motivated.
6. If I were taller, I _____ (could/reach) the top shelf this morning.
7. If she had more time off work, she _____ (could/go) to her friend's wedding last week.
8. We _____ (could/buy) that house last year if we had more money.
9. If he were more organised, he _____ (might/finish) his work on time.
10. They _____ (might/come) to the concert last night if they knew who was playing.

Answers:

1. If I were more patient, I might have helped her with her homework.
2. If she weren't so shy, she could have asked for a promotion last month.
3. We might not have got lost yesterday if we had better directions.
4. If he had a better memory, he might have remembered my birthday.
5. They could have joined the marathon last weekend if they were more motivated.
6. If I were taller, I could have reached the top shelf this morning.
7. If she had more time off work, she could have gone to her friend's wedding last week.
8. We could have bought that house last year if we had more money.
9. If he were more organised, he might have finished his work on time.
10. They might have come to the concert last night if they knew who was playing.