

Quantity Word + Uncountable Noun Exercise

Choose the correct quantity word to go with the uncountable noun.

1. Can I have a _____ (bottle/spoonful) of water to take away, please?
2. She gave me _____ (piece/grain) of advice about studying.
3. We need _____ (a pound/loaf) of bread for all these sandwiches.
4. There's a _____ (bottle/jar) of jam on the table for your cakes.
5. I need a _____ (slice/piece) of paper to write my shopping list on.
6. I would love a _____ (cup/litre) of tea right now.
7. Don't forget, we're on the last _____ (gram/tube) of toothpaste.
8. The recipe says just to add a _____ (lump/pinch) of salt to the sauce.
9. How many _____ (slices/items) of pizza can you get from one whole pizza?
10. Be careful! This is a really heavy _____ (lump/piece) of furniture.

Answers:

1. Can I have a (bottle/spoonful) of water to take away, please?
2. She gave me (piece/grain) of advice about studying.
3. We need (a pound/loaf) of bread for all these sandwiches.
4. There's a (bottle/jar) of jam on the table for your cakes.
5. I need a (slice/piece) of paper to write my shopping list on.
6. I would love a (cup/litre) of tea right now.
7. Don't forget, we're on the last (gram/tube) of toothpaste.
8. The recipe says just to add a (lump/pinch) of salt to the sauce.
9. How many (slices/items) of pizza can you get from one whole pizza?
10. Be careful! This is a really heavy (lump/piece) of furniture.