

Formal vs. Informal Intensifiers Exercise

Choose the correct intensifier for the situation (formal or informal).

1.	The presentation at the conference was _	( highly / totally ) impressive.
2.	It's ( extremely / so ) imptime.	portant that you submit your report on
3.	That café we found by the beach was nice - we should go there again!	( pretty / exceptionally )
4.	The food at that restaurant is critics.	( highly / super ) recommended by
5.	I'm ( really / extremely ) forgive me!	sorry I forgot your birthday - please
6.	The concert last night wasstill ringing!	_ ( so / incredibly ) loud - my ears are
7.	Her performance in the final exam was _strong - the results were outstanding.	( exceptionally / pretty )
8.	The film we watched was asleep halfway through.	_( so / highly ) boring - I nearly fell
9.	During the interview, it was what the speaker was saying over the no
10.	This wine you brought isdid you buy it?	( really / exceptionally ) good - where

Answers:

- 1. The presentation at the conference was highly impressive. (formal)
- 2. It's extremely important that you submit your report on time. (formal)
- 3. That café we found by the beach was pretty nice we should go there again! (informal)
- 4. The food at that restaurant is highly recommended by critics. (formal)
- 5. I'm really sorry I forgot your birthday please forgive me! (informal)
- 6. The concert last night was so loud my ears are still ringing! (informal)
- 7. Her performance in the final exam was exceptionally strong the results were outstanding. (formal)
- 8. The film we watched was so boring I nearly fell asleep halfway through. (informal)
- 9. During the interview, it was extremely difficult to hear what the speaker was saying over the noise outside. (formal)
- 10. This wine you brought is really good where did you buy it? (informal)