

Negative Questions Exercise 1

Change these sentences into negative questions. Use short forms where possible.

1. He goes to the gym every day.

2. She had tried that already.

3. It's going to rain later.

4. He'll be bringing his guitar.

5. Julie has finished painting her bedroom.

6. She'll have been running for an hour.

7. James was getting ready when you saw him.

8. They were at the cinema last night.

9. He'll have read the entire book by tomorrow.

10. She drinks coffee every morning.

11. He'd finished all his work by lunchtime.

12. She's going to visit her grandparents tomorrow.

13. You'll be celebrating with us tonight.

14. The children have been playing outside.

15. We'll have been planning for the presentation all day.

16. They were doing a crossword at that time.

17. The food was delicious at the new restaurant.

18. She'll have learned all the vocabulary by the end of the week.

19. They've been studying English for two hours.

20. You've been here before.

Answers

1. Doesn't he go to the gym every day?
2. Hadn't she tried that already?
3. Isn't it going to rain later?
4. Won't he be bringing his guitar?
5. Hasn't Julie finished painting her bedroom?
6. Won't she have been running for an hour?
7. Wasn't James getting ready when you saw him?
8. Weren't they at the cinema last night?
9. Won't he have read the entire book by tomorrow?
10. Doesn't she drink coffee every morning?
11. Hadn't he finished all his work by lunchtime?
12. Isn't she going to visit her grandparents tomorrow?
13. Won't you be celebrating with us tonight?
14. Haven't the children been playing outside?
15. Won't we have been planning for the presentation all day?
16. Weren't they doing a crossword at that time?
17. Wasn't the food delicious at the new restaurant?
18. Won't she have learned all the vocabulary by the end of the week?
19. Haven't they been studying English for two hours?
20. Haven't you been here before?