

Negative Questions Exercise 2

Change these sentences into negative questions. Use short forms where possible.

1. You're going to meet his parents tomorrow.

2. He'd already eaten when we arrived.

3. Julie works from home on Fridays.

4. She'll have finished her English course by June.

5. They were waiting for the bus in the rain.

6. We finished that series last week.

7. He'll be making chicken curry for dinner.

8. She's studying for her driving test.

9. They'll arrive before noon.

10. The baby finished all his breakfast this morning.

11. We'll be travelling to Rome this time next week.

12. They'd already left when we arrived at the station.

13. They're going to buy a new sofa.

14. You were watching a film when I walked in.

15. I'll have moved into my own flat by next year.

16. They're staying in a hotel near the beach.

17. They like going out for sushi.

18. You've already been to this restaurant.

19. She'll bring her camera to the party.

20. She's done all the cleaning today.

Answers

1. Aren't you going to meet his parents tomorrow?
2. Hadn't he already eaten when we arrived?
3. Doesn't Julie work from home on Fridays?
4. Won't she have finished her English course by June?
5. Weren't they waiting for the bus in the rain?
6. Didn't we finish that series last week?
7. Won't he be making chicken curry for dinner?
8. Isn't she studying for her driving test?
9. Won't they arrive before noon?
10. Didn't the baby finish all his breakfast this morning?
11. Won't we be travelling / traveling to Rome this time next week?
12. Hadn't they already left when we arrived at the station?
13. Aren't they going to buy a new sofa?
14. Weren't you watching a film when I walked in?
15. Won't I have moved into my own flat by next year?
16. Aren't they staying in a hotel near the beach?
17. Don't they like going out for sushi?
18. Haven't you already been to this restaurant?
19. Won't she bring her camera to the party?
20. Hasn't she done all the cleaning today?