

Possessive Pronouns Exercise

Put in a possessive pronoun (mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs).

1. Those sandwiches are for us. They're _____.
2. I think this pen is _____. John was writing with it earlier.
3. These tickets belong to William and Lucy. They're _____.
4. You've taken my towel by mistake. Mine is the red one, and the blue one is
_____.
5. Their garden is much bigger than _____, but we have more flowers.
6. Her style is so distinctive. The scarf is definitely _____.
7. He thinks the present is _____ because it's got his name on it.
8. This isn't your notebook. Look, it's my handwriting. It's _____.
9. These shoes are too small for me. They look like your size, are they _____?
10. I've seen Julie walking this dog before. I'm sure it's _____.
11. As soon as we saw the house, we could imagine ourselves living there. We knew that one day it would be _____.
12. She said that the red bike is _____, not her brother's.
13. These seats aren't _____. We're sitting in the wrong row.
14. My charger is brand new, but this one is broken so it can't be _____.
15. Our team played really well, but unfortunately, the trophy isn't _____.
16. I've finished my project. Have you completed _____ yet?
17. That child looks exactly like Julie and John. He is definitely _____.
18. We've shared a pizza and you've finished your half, so is this half _____?
19. _____ name is written on the side of the boat. It must be his.
20. They've got a podcast so all the equipment on the table is _____.

Answers:

1. Those sandwiches are for us. They're ours.
2. I think this pen is his. John was writing with it earlier.
3. These tickets belong to John and Lucy. They're theirs.
4. You've taken my towel by mistake. Mine is the red one, and the blue one is yours.
5. Their garden is much bigger than ours, but we have more flowers.
6. Her style is so distinctive. The scarf is definitely hers.
7. He thinks the present is his because it's got his name on it.
8. This isn't your notebook. Look, it's my handwriting. It's mine.
9. These shoes are too small for me. They look like your size, are they yours?
10. I've seen Julie walking this dog before. I'm sure it's hers.
11. As soon as we saw the house, we could imagine ourselves living there. We knew that one day it would be ours.
12. She said that the red bike is hers, not her brother's.
13. These seats aren't ours. We're sitting in the wrong row.
14. My charger is brand new, but this one is broken so it can't be mine.
15. Our team played really well, but unfortunately, the trophy isn't ours.
16. I've finished my project. Have you completed yours yet?
17. That child looks exactly like Julie and John. He is definitely theirs.
18. We've shared a pizza and you've finished your half, so is this half mine?
19. His name is written on the side of the boat. It must be his.
20. They've got a podcast so all the equipment on the table is theirs.