

Possessive Pronouns for Places Exercise

Complete the sentences with the correct possessive pronoun or 'apostrophe + s' to mean 'the house belonging to that person'.

1. We're going over to _____ later. (John's house)
 2. They're having a party at _____ on Friday. (their house)
 3. Let's eat at _____ tonight. (your house)
 4. Do you want to come over to _____ next week? (our house)
 5. Are you coming to _____ for dinner? (mum's house)
 6. Shall we go to _____ tomorrow? (their house)
 7. Lucy said it was this street, so I think it's _____ (her house).
 8. I'm meeting Tom at _____ later. (his house)
-
1. I can't talk right now but will see you at _____ later. (Sarah's house)
 2. I can't come today. I'm staying at _____ (my house)

Answers:

1. We're going over to John's later.
2. They're having a party at theirs on Friday.
3. Let's eat at yours tonight.
4. Do you want to come over to ours next week?
5. Are you coming to mum's for dinner?
6. Shall we go to theirs tomorrow?
7. Lucy said it was this street, so I think it's hers.
8. I'm meeting Tom at his later.
9. I can't talk right now but will see you at Sarah's later.
10. I can't come today. I'm staying at mine.