

‘Which’ or ‘That’? Exercise

Complete the sentence with ‘which’ or ‘that’. If the clause is non-defining, use ‘which’ and if it’s defining, use ‘that’.

1. The laptop _____ I bought last week is already broken.
2. The laptop, _____ I’ve had for years, is already broken.
3. The restaurant _____ we went to yesterday was fantastic.
4. The restaurant, _____ we went to yesterday, was fantastic.
5. The painting _____ is in the hallway is worth thousands.
6. The painting, _____ is in the hallway, was a gift from my aunt.
7. The shoes _____ I ordered online didn’t fit me.
8. The shoes, _____ I ordered online, were more expensive than I expected.
9. The dessert _____ she made for the party was delicious.
10. The dessert, _____ she made for the party, was everyone’s favourite.
11. The film _____ won the award was directed by Gerwig.
12. The film, _____ won the award, broke box office records.
13. The museum _____ we visited had a brilliant exhibition.
14. The museum, _____ we visited on Saturday, is closing next week.
15. The decision _____ they made surprised everyone.
16. The decision, _____ they made yesterday, shocked us all.
17. The app _____ he created became very popular.
18. The app, _____ he created in two months, was later sold to a big company.
19. The rule _____ applies to all students must be followed strictly.
20. The rule, _____ applies to all students, has been updated recently.

Answers:

1. The laptop that I bought last week is already broken.
2. The laptop, which I've had for years, is already broken.
3. The restaurant that we went to yesterday was fantastic.
4. The restaurant, which we went to yesterday, was fantastic.
5. The painting that is in the hallway is worth thousands.
6. The painting, which is in the hallway, was a gift from my aunt.
7. The shoes that I ordered online didn't fit me.
8. The shoes, which I ordered online, were more expensive than I expected.
9. The dessert that she made for the party was delicious.
10. The dessert, which she made for the party, was everyone's favourite.
11. The film that won the award was directed by Gerwig.
12. The film, which won the award, broke box office records.
13. The museum that we visited had a brilliant exhibition.
14. The museum, which we visited on Saturday, is closing next week.
15. The decision that they made surprised everyone.
16. The decision, which they made yesterday, shocked us all.
17. The app that he created became very popular.
18. The app, which he created in two months, was later sold to a big company.
19. The rule that applies to all students must be followed strictly.
20. The rule, which applies to all students, has been updated recently.