

'Whose' or 'Who's'? Exercise

Put in 'whose' or 'who's' (who has / who is).

1. _____ coat is this on the chair?
2. I wonder _____ responsible for this mess.
3. _____ going to go first in class today?
4. I met a man _____ sister is a famous singer.
5. _____ eaten all the biscuits?
6. _____ notebook is on the floor?
7. _____ gloves are these by the door?
8. Do you know _____ coming to the meeting later?
9. We talked to a family _____ horse won a prize at the competition.
10. _____ been calling me all morning?

Answers:

1. Whose coat is this on the chair?
2. I wonder who's responsible for this mess.
3. Who's going to go first in class today?
4. I met a man whose sister is a famous singer.
5. Who's eaten all the biscuits?
6. Whose notebook is on the floor?
7. Whose gloves are these by the door?
8. Do you know who's coming to the meeting later?
9. We talked to a family whose horse won a prize at the competition.
10. Who's been calling me all morning?